BRAVE SOLDIER

Record of the Late Confederate S. M. Stone, One of Marvellous Endurance and Daring

Here is the war record of the late Samuel M. Stone, late of Dover, who dropped dead on his farm a few days ago:

Born in Alleghany county, Va., December 24, 1842. At the age of 18 he enlisted at Leesburg, Va., July 31, 1861, as a private in the regiment known as the Orange Artillery, under Captain C. W. Fry, attached to the second Artillery corps.

His battle list includes Big Sewell, Mt. Elizabeth City, Ft. Darling, Drury's Bluff, Uppermill, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Wilderness, Spotsylvania, Berryville, Cedar Creek and Petersburg.

He was constantly under fire until General Lee surrendered.

He received a scalp wound at Spotsylvania and was furloughed for 15 days in January, 1865.

He rejoined his command at Fishersville, Va., and as the army of Northern Virginia was surrendered to General Grant no discharges were issued.

While in service Mr. Stone never lost one day's duty.

He spent and ran over 1700 rounds of ammunition.

Is not that a battle record which should bring martial immortality to a man who was as gentle as a kitten and as modest as he was gentle; so modest that the writer who knew him for thirty years never knew that he had been in nearly all the fiercest engagements of the Civil War?

It will take beautiful roses to deck Sam Stone's grave in Dover.

Rev. J. A. Dell from Brooksville, Ky., will preach at the German Lutheran Church in Mayville next Sunday at 10:30. All cordially invited.

Better Read the Game Laws

Under the present game laws you have no right to shoot rabbits or squirrels until November 15th. The Game Warden'll get you if you don't watch 'em.

Ruined His Crop

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.
J. D. Watson, a prominent Mayfield man had a "patch" of six large stalks of tobacco in his garden, and the other night some practical joker placed upon his crop a multitude of large and hungry tobacco worms that devoured his patch in one night.

GREEN KELLER

Noted Kentuckian and Brilliant Newspaper Man—Brief Sketch of a Busy Career

Green R. Keller, Editor of The Carlisle Mercury and Representative in the State Legislature from the Nicholas-Robertson Legislative District, who died suddenly of stomach trouble at his home in Carlisle Wednesday in his 68th year, was one of the best-known newspaper men in the state and was one of the Democratic leaders in the Legislature last winter.

Green R. Keller was born in Harrison county May 27th, 1845. He was the son of Noah and Elizabeth Keller, and was educated in the common schools and in a Covington business college. He represented Bourbon county in the House during Governor McCreary's first term as Governor 36 years ago, and has been Clerk of the House several times since, including the "long session" of 1893. Last fall he was elected from the Nicholas-Robertson District to the place he had formerly filled as a legislator.

Mr. Keller was the founder of The Cynthia Democrat, which he subsequently sold, and was for several years Editor of a paper at Paris while he was living in Bourbon county.

He moved to Carlisle in 1882 and bought The Carlisle Mercury, which he has owned ever since.

Mr. Keller enlisted in Company B, Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, in the brigade of General Buford in September, 1862. Later he was transferred to the command of General John Hunt Morgan. He was captured in the Morgan raid through Ohio and was in a Union prison for fourteen months. He was Secretary of the Morgan's Men Association at the time of his death.

In 1870 he married Miss Fannie Holton of Mason county.

He was a member of Daugherty Lodge No. 65, F. and A. M., and of the Christian Church.

The funeral services were held at the home in Carlisle this morning at 10:30 o'clock and the Masons and Confederate veterans had a prominent part in the services.

Col. Keller's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Cynthia, who is 88 years of age, was summoned to his bedside before he died, as was his son, Dr. Harvey Keller.

WHEN YOUR HAIR BRUSHES OUT

Your hair is as sensitive as your skin—even more so. It stands up under heavy hats, curling irons, and diseases of the scalp. But there is a limit.

When you comb and brush your hair in the morning, watch for the "TRAILERS" that turn grey, fall out, and comb out with the first morning brush.

You MUST know that there's something wrong. If your hair was in good health, it wouldn't fall out, nature never intended that. There's something wrong at the root of things—the hair needs a tonic—a restorer. That is your first thought. Its turning grey, falling out, are both ways the hair has of "complaining of illness." It can't do it in any other way.—Do YOUR part. Use—HAY'S HAIR HEALTH

Public SALE

Saturday, Sept. 28,

1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., as Agent for the heirs of Rachel J. Chanaler and Isaac F. Chanaler, I will sell the

FARM

Consisting of About 137 Acres!

Said farm lies on the South of Millersburg, about one-half mile from town on the east side of the Mayville and Lexington turnpike; the L. & N. R. R. running along west side. This is one of the most desirable farms in the county. It has on it a 2-story brick house, with new roof, and is in good condition; a tobacco barn and warehouse, with plank floor and good tobacco screw; stable, corn crib, buggy house, chicken house, smoke house and splendid ice house, three cellars; also tenement house, two cabins, and the best spring in the county, and two other fields with ever-falling water. This farm is well fenced, and is in a good neighborhood as anyone could wish, and can all be plowed. There is about 35 acres in corn and the rest in grass. Anyone wishing a home will make a great mistake if they don't attend this sale, as there is no more beautiful situation on the Mayville and Lexington turnpike, and is in one half mile of two of the best schools in the state, both male and female colleges, and only 7 miles from Paris. It will be sold as a whole, or divided to suit purchasers. Terms made known on day of sale.

J. C. JEFFERSON,
Agent for Heirs.

At the same time and place, as Administrator of Isaac F. Chanaler, I will offer for sale on the premises a large lot of farming machinery, stock, household goods, etc.

J. C. JEFFERSON,
Administrator.
